EASTERN TURF PROSPECTS.

An editorial in the New York Sun of January 13, predicts a successful year of racing in the east. It says: "Judging from the number and the quality of the horses nominated for the various prominent races of the Coney Island Jockey Club this year, the turf is likely to furnish some great sport before the end of next fall. Beginning with the Suburban Handicap, to be run at Sheepshead Bay on June 14, all of the big races have attracted an unusually large number of thoroughbreds, among which are the speediest horses to be found in this country."

"Seldom, if ever, have so many youngsters of excellent ability been brought out in a single season as were sent to the post last year; and if, in their three-year-old form, these horses show the speed and endurance which may be fairly expected of them, the candidates in that division in the coming season should be exceptionally able. Indeed, as the existing scale of weights is generally believed to favor the younger horses, it will not be surprising if the three-year-olds succeed in winning a few of the rich stakes."

"The performers in that division, however, are not likely to have so easy a time of it this year as they did last, when horses of mature age were uncommonly few, and their owners, for one reason or another, withheld them from several of the more important races. Unless all the signs are misleading, the four-year-olds of the coming season will be a mighty formidable lot, and no lightweight of average ability will be able to 'take their measure.' And there is good reason to believe that in the older division also will be found some very useful material."

"Experience has shown, though, that good horses do not always assure good racing. Liberal inducements in the way of purses play an important part in making horse racing attractive, and in that direction the conditions which will prevail this year in the east will be all that could be desired."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The entries for the two-year-old stakes, to be run at New Orleans, were made public by Secretary Clark Tuesday. They show a big increase over last year, the four events averaging forty-one entries, against something like twenty for last year. Among the nominators are J. D. Crimmins, Jr., R. W. Walden & Son, P. Chinn & Co., B. Schreiber, P. A. Renaud, Fred Wood and Calvert & Co. H. T. Griffin is the largest nominator, he having made as high as eight entries in some of the races. The stakes, dates of running, distances and entries are as follows:

Wednesday, January 29, The Orleans Railroad Co. Stakes, $1,000 added; 3-8 mile..... 48
Monday, February 10, The St. Charles Hotel Stakes, fillies, $1,000 added; 1-2 mile..... 43
Wednesday, February 19, The New Orleans City Railroad Co. Stakes, $1,000 added; 1-2 mile... 25
Wednesday, March 5, The Premier Stakes, $1,000 added; 5-8 mile..... 49

A partnership has been formed at New York between Frederick C. McLewee and James B. Brady. During the past racing season the horses Gold Heels, Luck and Charity, Major Daingerfield and Hindred were raced in the name and colors of F. C. McLewee, although it was said that J. B. Brady owned a controlling interest in the horses. The youngsters that will represent the stable have been named Sweet Annie Page, Fair Rosalind, Annie Hathaway, Falconbridge, Prince of Arragon and Avant Courier.

Peter Wimmer, the man who trained and developed Kinley Mack, the dual winner of the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps in 1900, will train exclusively for Captain S. S. Brown, the Pittsburg millionaire, this season. He has secured permission from Mr. Brown to train a sister to Imp for Dan Harness. The filly is now quartered at the home farm in Ohio. Mr. Harness believes she will become as famous as her great sister on the turf. Her name is Scioto.

Louis Ezell's Flying Torpedo, which the horseman considers to be the best animal he ever owned, not barring The Lady or Pepper, has developed a quarter crack in his off hind hoof and may not race again for several months. The accident is a hard blow to Ezell, as he thought with a light weight Torpedo had an excellent chance in many of the handicaps, especially if the track happened to be muddy.

President Wilson, of the Montana Jockey Club, states that there will be sixty days racing at Butte and Anaconda this year. The purses are to be bigger than last season, there being no race for less than $250. There will be auction pools and book betting.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

P. J. Gorman has returned to Cincinnati, Ohio, from a visit to the Bellow farm near Owensboro, Ky., where his horses are wintering. He says they are in fine shape. He will begin racing at Nashville and come up the line to Latonia. He has entered Mabel Winn and Ciales in a couple of stakes at Latonia. From Latonia he will go to St. Louis.

The London Sportsman says it is reported that at the next meeting of the Jockey Club a proposal will be made to elect an American patron of racing in England an honorary member of the club, and that the person so elected will probably be James R. Keene or W. C. Whitney.

Frank Sloan's wonderful two-year-old filly, which some time ago went three-eighths in 37½ seconds, made a better performance on the Lexington track some days ago. With 105 pounds up she went a quarter in 23½ seconds, covering the first eighth in 11½ seconds.

J. R. Keene has lost by death at Castleton Stud, the chestnut mare Lucy Wallace, foaled in 1877, by Ballinheel or War Dance—Blanche Rousseau. She threw many winners, including Game Boy, Luminous, Martha, Regulator and Doublet.

Lingo, Sam Hildreth's cast-off, is proving a useful racing tool for Ed Trotter at New Orleans. The filly has won her last four starts. She is quite a sprinter and has proved her versatility by going over a route and winning.

William Hendrie, the millionaire Canadian turfman, has ordered his string, including Martimas, Gold Car and others, to be shipped to Nashville to be trained hereafter by Ed Moore.

Daniel O'Brien of Lexington has purchased of Gus Easton the yearling bay filly, by Halma—Shipmate, by Spendthrift. O'Brien proposes to race a string the coming season.

Thomas Healey, the noted New York trainer, has arrived at San Francisco. He handled the stable of R. T. Wilson, Jr. last season, which included The Parader and Carbuncle.

It is rumored that at the expiration of the present running meeting at Charleston there will be a sixty-day meeting held at Savannah, Ga.

Rosormonde is to be returned to Palo Alto in the course of a few days.

Leo Mayer has arrived at San Francisco.

Winner—Ch. g. by Rio Bravo—Rosabella. Went to post at 2:15. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Bagdad, from a flat-footed start, closed a big gap and drew out of the field strongly at the end. Novia is improving and finished fast. Gold Finder was skilfully handled throughout and lucky to beat Courtier, which was wearing him down at the end. Darlene was badly handled and had a rough journey and will do to watch. Marineuse appeared to be the winner to the stretch turn but quit badly. Invictus showed plenty of early speed but quit and is best on a soft track.

Scratched—30226 Go Out, 107; 30204 Nilgar, 104.

Winner—B. c. by Dundee—Our Pet. Went to post at 2:40. At post 5 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Our Pride was given a lucky start, went to the front without urging in the stretch and was best. He is a good looker and can beat better ones. Bassenzo displayed speed and finished strongly. He is not consistent. John Peters quit badly after he had shown much speed and appeared to be the winner in the stretch. He will probably stay better in soft going. Bendara closed a big gap. Montana Peeress ran like a stayer and was right there at the end. King Herald was practically left and his rider made no effort after the start. Cathello wants light weight and was pocketed throughout.

Our Pride, show, evens. Bassenzo, show, 2 to 1. John Peters, show, 1 to 2.

Time, 12, 24, 42½.

Winner—B. c. by Foul Shot—Rebecca Panique. Went to post at 3:08. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won handily; second driving. Hudson, off well, was lucky and given a strong ride. He shook off Puss in Boots in the last furlong, but was driven out to stand off Adirondack. The latter broke slowly and was carried wide on the stretch turn, but finished with a rush and should win before long. Puss in Boots displayed a brilliant turn of speed and hung on well. Montezuma showed only a brief flash of speed. Venecia broke flat-footed and had no chance after the start. Temperano and Arabo had no chance at the start.

Overweights—Hudson, 1 pound; Montezuma, 1.

Hudson, show, out. Adirondack, show, out. Puss in Boots, show, 8 to 5.

30258 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile. 3-year-olds and upward. The Santa Cruz Handicap. Value $600.

Winner—B. c. by Autocrat—Silverlight.

Went to post at 3:32. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Autolight secured a good start next to the rail, but was gradually outrun early. He, however, closed up steadily from the last half, caught the pacemakers tiring and won out in a driving finish from Position. The latter trailed for the first quarter, made up a tremendous amount of ground in the last six furlongs, and was probably unfortunate in moving too soon when taking an apparently winning lead when a furlong out. Jim Hale ran a remarkably fast and game race, but was lucky to beat Lapidus, which was crossed and came again right at the end. Scotch Plaid finished very fast and is evidently in good form. Water Scratch needs a more vigorous rider and had a scant chance with his small rider. He was going strongly at the end. San Nicholas was run to a standstill by Bullman's rushing tactics. Throw out his race. Bathos was outclassed, but will do to watch.

Autolight, show, 1 to 3. Position, show, 3 to 5. Jim Hale, show, 8 to 5.

This animal's recent form is very bad, but this can be easily accounted for. Since his last public appearance he has worked a mile as follows: 1-4, 2-1; 1-2, 4-1; 5-8, 1-2; 3-4, 1-15; mile, 1-4; easily, with 120 pounds up. Do you think that this is good enough to win? This one is controlled by as shrewd a combination of horsemen as ever raced at New Orleans, and when they fail to cash it is due to an accident. We shall further have two others; the odds will be from 3 to 8 to 1 on each and these with the one named above should enable every client to be a big winner on the day.

Winner—B. c. by Wadsworth—Modjeska.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Siddons ran like a natural stayer. Apparently driving early he gradually overhauled the others and finished strongly, but was lucky to beat Morinel. The latter ran well and apparently had the race practically assured throughout, but a weak finish caused her to lose. Rey del San Juan finished strongly and has evidently much improved for going over a distance. Sylvan Lass, under restraint to the stretch, was badly messed about in the last quarter. Expedient went well. Alicia had a rough journey, but lacked the speed to keep in a good position. Plead favors soft going. Racivo went a good mile but was short and will probably win soon.

Overweights—Kastaine, 5 pounds; Alicia, 2.

Siddons, show, 1 to 3. Morinel, show, 2 to 1. Rey del San Juan, show, 4 to 1.

Winner—B. g. by Fonso—Florence E.

Went to post at 4:26. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Floronso's brilliant preliminary foreshadowed his easy victory. In hand to the stretch, he drew to the front with the greatest ease when called on and was much the best. Reina de Cuba is a quick breaker and was given a lucky start. She showed the way at a fast clip and stayed unusually well, but is very unreliable. Pompino tired right at the end after being prominent throughout. Merops broke slowly and steadily improved his position, but must have soft going to run his best. Bernota was short and quit in the stretch and will improve. He is best in sticky going. Hungarian can do better.

Scratched—30221 Gibraltar, 110; 30071 Cougar, 107; 30116 Flammaro, 104; (30208) Captivate, 102; 30144 Our Lizzie, 102.

Winner—B. g. by Grayson—Willie Stiff.

Went to post at 2:00. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Weird finished fast, came through next to the inside rail, caught the leaders in the last twenty yards and was going away at the end. Ben Frost was well ridden and ran his race, but hung when it came to a drive. Olekma did well but lost ground at the home turn by going wide. Barney Saal was prominent in the break-aways and showed speed to the stretch but quit in the last quarter. Gold Lack was eased up at the end. He is broken winded and quit from exhaustion. Poyntz ran a fairly good race.

Scratched—30232 Hop Scotch, 129.

Went to post at 2:37. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Kingstelle was best and had things all her own way in the run home. She moved up to Shut Up without much of an effort and was going away at the end. Shut Up ran well throughout and outstayed Socapa in a drive all through the last quarter. Socapa did his best. Prince Real closed a big gap. He was cut off and knocked about on the backstretch. Frank Ireland quit as if short. Strangest got off badly.

Went to post at 3:53. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Ida Ledford is in good form, showed a fine turn of speed, wore the leaders down in the run home and got up in the last few strides. Andes ran a good race and hung on gamely, the light weight favoring him. Semicolon showed the most early speed, but weakened when the hard stretch drive came. Velma Clark was used up in chasing Semicolon. St. David was in close quarters when going down the backstretch, was cut off at the far turn and then went around his field and came very wide into the homestretch. He is rounding to and will bear watching from now on in any company.

Went to post at 4:29. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Eva Rice got off well, quickly assumed command and showed the most speed all the way, but was tiring at the end. Cast Iron finished strongest, was wearing her down at the end and would have won in a few more strides. Winner—Ch. h. by St. Blaise—Woodflower.

Went to post at 4:58. At post 16 minutes. Start good. Won all out; second easily. St. Wood showed a great burst of early speed and opened up a big gap while rounding the far turn, but tired badly in the run home and was exhausted at the end. Eome finished strongly and was wearing the winner down at the finish. Jerry Hunt closed a big gap after being outrun in the early stages. H. S. Tobacco was eased up when beaten.
